

Estimate of the sales and advance payments for package travel provided by a tour operator

Package travel company's name	Telephone/fax
Contact person's name	Email

Advance payments = reservation fees and final payments up to the day following the departure date that are in the possession of the tour operator = debt to consumers.

The advance payments for all package travel are indicated next to each month as advance payments until their logging as sales once the trip begins.

Year	Package travel sales (€1,000)				Advance payments (€1,000)
	Corporate sales	Consumer sales according to trip duration			Package travel advances from consumers at maximum	Unclaimed gift certificates	Advance payments in total
		Trip duration 1–5 days	Trip duration 6–14 days	Trip duration over 14 days
January
February
March
April
May
June
July
August
September
October
November
December

* Indicate the average duration of trip longer than 14 days.

Date and place	Sign and print name
----------------	---------------------